

MRS. MADSEN ANSWERS

Denies Her Husband's Allegations and Alleges Gross Cruelty.

AVESON DIVORCE SUIT

TRIED AND TAKEN UNDER AD-VISEMENT BY JUDGE HILES.

Condemnation Proceedings Between the Salt Lake and Los Angeles Railway Company, and Judge Moses Hallett and Others—Damage Suits Filed Against the Theatre Company and Against the City—General Court Callings.

The defendant in the divorce suit of Claus B. Madsen against Christina M.
Madsen, yesterday filed an answer and cross-complaint in the district court.
Mrs. Madsen admits that the marriage took place at Herning, Denmark, but denies that she deserted her husband without sufficient cause or at all.

By way of cross-complaint, she alleges that her husband wilfully neglected to provide her with the common necessaries of life, although he was amply able to do so. She also alleges that all the time since the marriage he, without cause, treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner. In February, 1887, she says that near Beaver, Utah, when they were on the road to Salt Lake, and when they had camped for the night, he drew a pistol on her and threatened to kill her, and would have killed her had not their daughter interfered and took the weapon from him.
Again, she says that in 1889 he ordered her to leave the house, and with threats and violence compelled her to go away and to remain away for a period of three months, and in 1891, when she was in need of articles to conduct her household affairs, he declared he would not buy them, and angrily declared he would not permit her to do anything more for him, and has ever since refused to allow her to enter the part of the house he occupies, and has therefore refused to have anything more to do with her, and has deserted and abandoned her.

Madsen, she says, owns property to the value of $2,500, and several hundred dollars in cash. She asks for a decree of divorce and alimony, and that her husband be restrained from disposing of his property pending the trial of the case.

Smith & Nelson are the attorneys for Mrs. Madsen.

AVESON VS. AVESON.

Heard by Judge Hiles and Taken
Under Advisement.

Judge Hiles heard the divorce suit of Hannah E. Aveson against Miles Ave-son yesterday. An attorney Ray Van Cott represented the plaintiff, and Attorney C. S. Kinney and Alex McMaster for the defendant.

The parties intermarried at Logan on May 22, 1880, and since then the complaint that for more than one year the defendant wilfully neglected to provide his wife with the common necessaries of life, and also deserted and abandoned her. Mrs. Aveson asked for a decree of divorce, and the custody of the two young children.

The defendant denied that he had failed to provide for his wife, and also denied that he had deserted her. On the contrary, he alleged that Mrs. Ave-son had deserted him, and he prayed that the decree of divorce be given to him, and that he have the custody of the children.

The plaintiff and Mrs. Anna Clemenson were examined for the plaintiff, after which the defendant moved for a non-suit, which was sustained as to the ground of the defendant's desertion of his wife, and overruled as to the non-support.

Several witnesses were examined to prove that Aveson did support his wife and family.

After the hearing his honor took it under advisement.

CONDEMNATION SUIT.

Value of Land For Right of Way For Salt Lake Beach Road.

The cases of Moses Hallett et al. vs. the Salt Lake Railway company and the Salt Lake Railway company against Moses Hallett et al. came on for trial yesterday before Judge Cherry, with Messrs. Richards and Richards represented the Salt Lake Railway company and Messrs. Marshall and Boyle and B. B. Houshmand appearing for Moses Hallett et al.

By agreement the two cases were tried together before seven jurors.
The question involved was the value in June, 1897, of 27 acres of land situated about a mile and a half west of the Jordan river, for the condemnation of which, as a right of way for the Salt Lake beach railroad, the company brought suit.

The land was owned by Judge Hallett of the United States federal court and George W. Clayton, who brought their cross-suit to recover $15,000, the amount they claimed to be worth in 1892. The company's right of way was admitted, which threw the burden of proof as to the value of the land on Messrs. Hallett and Clayton.

Witnesses for both sides were examined as to the value, after which very brief arguments were made, and the case reached the jury about 5:30 with instructions to return a sealed verdict. They agreed about 7 o'clock, and the verdict will be opened on Friday morning.

THEATRE COMPANY SUE.

Jesse B. Foreman Wants $10,000 Damages For Personal Injuries.

Jesse B. Foreman, aged 35, by Frank L. Foreman, his guardian ad litem, has entered suit against the Salt Lake Theatre company to recover $10,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by him while doing some electrical repairs in the Salt Lake theatre.

The plaintiff was suspended in a chair when a plug of wood, weighing about three pounds, fell from the ceiling, striking the plaintiff on the head and fracturing his skull, permanently injuring him.

SUIT AGAINST THE CITY.

A. K. Smith Claims $10,000, Alleging Personal Injuries.

A. K. Smith is suing Salt Lake City to recover $10,000 damages for personal injuries sustained by his falling into an excavation in the sidewalk.
It is alleged that on Feb. 3 an excavation existed in the sidewalk on Main street between First and Second streets, in front of the Scott building, and that in the night time the plaintiff, on account of its unguarded condition, fell into the pit, fracturing his shoulder and breaking his thigh, to his damage in the sum named, for which judgment is prayed.

Griffin Wants $4,000 From the City.

J. H. Griffin yesterday filed a supplemental complaint in his suit against Salt Lake City, to recover on his sprinkling contract. In this addition to the complaint it is alleged that the city council let a contract for sprinkling 200 blocks in the city to Mr. Heath, while under his agreement with the city, Mr. Griffin was to have the doing of extra sprinkling at a fixed rate.

On account of this, he claims $4,000 damages, and prays for judgment for the same. The main facts were set out in the original complaint, and the effect of the supplemental complaint is to name the exact amount of the claim which, at the time of the filing of the original complaint was not as-certainable.

District Court Orders.

Wardner Bushnell & Co. vs. Charles Handley; judgment and decree for plaintiff by default for $1,580.64.

Albert Fisher vs. George Teasdale et al.; judgment and decree of foreclosure for the plaintiff for $1,052.98.

Fred Furniture company vs. H. G.
Burton et al.; dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

Elizabeth B. Eastmond vs. Julius Thompson et al.; judgment and decree of foreclosure for the plaintiff, by default, for $15,941.10, and costs.

Forster vs. Giovanni Cenghino; dismissed.

J. H. Griffin vs. Salt Lake City; plaintiff gave leave to file supplemental complaint.

Probate Rulings.

Estate of Ferdinand D. Merrill, deceased; order of sale of real estate made.

Estate of Caroline C. Donelson, deceased; account approved and administrator discharged.

Estate of Fred W. Mitchell, deces-ed; final account allowed and decree of distribution entered.

Estate of Charlotte Halvorsen, deceased; Lewis C. Shaw appointed administrator on filing bond in the sum of $400.

Estate of James Bird, deceased; order of sale of real estate made.

Mathews Found Not Guilty.

Thomas Mathews had a hearing yesterday afternoon before Justice Stewart, on the complaint of James T.
Monk, charging Mathews with forcibly and unlawfully seizing and holding possession of a certain tunnel in the Richfield and Dolly Varden mining claims in the Big Cottonwood mining district. The trial was held before a jury, which returned a verdict of not guilty.

Court Callings.

Frank Thompson, executor of the will of the late James Thompson, has entered suit against H. M. McCartney et al., to recover $1,110, balance alleged to be due on certain promissory notes secured by a second mortgage on certain real estate.

Petit Juror W. S. Purgate failed to appear in court yesterday, and an attachment was issued for him. He was brought into court by Deputy Sheriff Levy, and fined the costs, $2.20.

CROOKS HEARD FROM.

RETURNED FROM WALL ST.
AS A SHORN LAMB.

Now He Has Gone to Cincinnati, Opened a Cafe and Hopes to Retrieve His Shattered Fortunes.

E. C. Crooks, the erstwhile Salt Lake broker, whose departure from this city a few weeks ago under somewhat peculiar circumstances, as detailed exclusively in The Herald, was chronicled, has been heard from.

Mr. Crooks is in Cincinnati. He is no longer a broker, a patron of square sports and a high roller. Mr. Crooks keeps a cafe.

The Cincinnati Gazette announces Mr. Crooks' arrival "in our midst" and gives him a very liberal amount of space, because Mr. Crooks appears in the role of a broker who went down to Wall street and was shorn. He is quoted as authority for this, and the information is given that he lost a fortune through dallying with the bulls and bears.

Now Mr. Crooks announces that he has gone to Cincinnati and opened up a cafe to retrieve his shattered fortunes.

Success to Crooks and his cafe.

MIKE FITZGERALD HURT.

Sustains Severe Injuries While En-Route to Work.

Mike Fitzgerald, one of the engineers at the Mammoth mine, at Mammoth, was the victim of a distressing accident yesterday morning. Mike was to take the morning shift, and left his home to go to work before daylight.
It was very dark and he was snowed at the time. He lost his way on the pathway which leads from his home to the works and is supposed to have fallen over a wall four or five feet in height.
Fitzgerald sustained severe injuries about the head, one jagged wound extending several inches in two or three directions from the top of the head.
In addition to this he was bruised severely about the body and limbs.

He was brought to this city last evening and was taken to the hospital of the Hotel Central, where his injuries were attended to. His case is critical, although it is expected he will recover. The blame, if any, for the accident does not appear to be due to any fault of the company for which he was working. Those who brought him into the city were particularly to lay stress upon that fact.

Assist Nature

A little now and then, with a gentle, cleansing laxative, thereby removing offending matter from the stomach and toning up and invigorating the liver and quickening its tardy action, and thereby remove the cause of a multitude of distressing diseases, such as headaches, indigestion, biliousness, skin diseases, boils, carbuncles, piles, fistulas and maladies too numerous to mention.
To accomplish this purpose, Dr.
Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequalled.
Once used, they are always in favor.
Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

IN THE SOCIAL REALM

The Judge-O'Brien Wedding At St.
Marys Cathedral.

IT WAS A BRILLIANT SCENE

WITNESSED BY RELATIVE AND IMMEDIATE FRIENDS.

The Marriage of Miss Alice Nicholson and Mr. Francis W. Cope, followed by a Reception—Marriage of Miss Blanchette and Mr.
Frank W. Hurd at the First Congregational Church—Bride-Brain Nuptials—Social Notes.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth F.
Judge and Mr. William M. O'Brien was solemnized at St. Mary's cathedral at 6:30 last evening.

It was a very quiet affair, only the relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties being present.

The church presented a brilliant scene as the bridal party entered. The altar was lavishly decorated with palms, chrysanthemums, and smilax and was illumined by innumerable wax candles.

The music was very fine, Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and wedding march being given on organ solos, while Miss Harlow sang Lamberti's wedding song exquisitely.

The bride was preceded by the aisle

From the time the doors were opened, at 5:30, until the feast was over, at 8 o'clock, the tables were filled, and several people were forced to wait for their chance to get a table. The supper was a decided success, and should not the Ladies' guild a neat sum. Society was well represented, and there were many who left their dinners at home in order to partake of the tempting viands spread before them by the ladies of the guild.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable state of the weather last evening, there was a good turn-out at Christensen's hall, where a very sociable gathering dined until midnight. There will be a matinee Thanksgiving afternoon and at night a full evening dress ball.

Mrs. W. G. Farrell came down from Logan last evening to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Hon. and Mrs.
John T. Cairne.

Miss Jennie Bult and Mr. H. Brain were married last evening at the residence of the bride's brother, 620 West Third Street. The wedding was a very pretty one and was followed by a reception and supper to the friends of the young couple.

At the Way hotel last evening occurred one of the most pleasant events of the season. The lady guests of the hotel were responsible for an informal hop, at which several invited guests were present. Light refreshments were served during the evening, and, until after midnight, the party, consisting of about 30 couples, "tripped the light fantastic toe." It was one of those deligh-tfully informal affairs, where every one has a good time, and was an occasion which will long be remembered by those who participated.

by six little girls from St. Ann's Orphanage, all attired in white, and carrying bouquets. The bride walked alone and was met at the altar by the groom, and Bishop Scanlan, in the rich vestments of his office, stood at the right, and officiated at the ceremony, being assisted by Rev. Father Kidey, who stood at the left, while on either side of the altar stood acolytes, swinging the censers.

The ceremony itself was very impressive, and at the close the bride and groom took a carriage to the Oregon Short Line depot, and left at once for Butte, where they will in future reside.

The bride wore a gown of dark blue brocade, and a gray hat, trimmed with black and white.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs.
Mary Judge, and is prominent in social circles here. She has long taken a great interest in the Orphanage established by the Catholic church, and has been one of the best friends of that institution.

Mr. O'Brien is one of the O'Brien Brothers, who have offices here and in Butte.

The wedding of Miss Alice M. Nicholson and Francis W. Cope was solemnized yesterday in the temple.

A reception was given in the evening at the home of the bride's aunt, 32 West North Temple, at which the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom were the only guests. Congratulations were received from numerous friends. Mr. and Mrs. Cope will begin housekeeping at 235 Fourth street.

Mr. Cope is a son of the late Francis Cope, former general passenger agent of the Utah Central, and following the railroad propensities of his father, is now employed in the office of the Oregon Short Line.

Frank W. Hurd, a well known business man of Leadville, and Miss Blanche Hackett, of this city, were married at the First Congregational church yesterday afternoon, Rev. C. T. Brown officiating. The wedding was a pretty one, and was witnessed by a number of friends of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurd will be at home at Leadville, after Dec. 15.

The Ladies' guild of St. Mark's gave a most enjoyable and successful Thanksgiving supper in St. Mark's hall yesterday evening. The supper was a delicious one and was served in the charming style for which the ladies are noted. The large room was filled with tables all beautifully decorated, some ornamented with roses, while others had large bouquets of carnations, chryssanthems and other pretty flowers artistically arranged about them.

Besides the flowers, the handwork of the ladies themselves was displayed to advantage in the beautiful needlework, in the dolls and centerpieces that graced the several tables. Pretty candelabra were placed on the tables and added to the effect. Some of the young ladies of society waited on the guests

The whole feast was topped off with delicious pie "like mother used to make."

SHOT A PRISONER.

JOHN RAYMOND, ALIAS JOHN WELSH, THE VICTIM.

He Tried to Escape From Officer Tom Hilton and Was Shot While Climbing Over a Fence.

Last night about 12 o'clock, Officer Tom Hilton shot and wounded John Raymond, who attempted to escape from him when under arrest. It appears that Hilton was walking along First South street, near the police station, when he espied two men in the jail yard. This is against the rules of the jail, so the officer immediately hastened to the spot to see what the trespassers were doing in the yard. When he got there he found them under the windows of the jail.

They tried to escape, but Hilton arrested them and started with them into the station. As he did so, one of the prisoners, who gave his name as John Welsh, whose true name is Raymond, turned to the officer, called him the vilest names he could think of, and at the same time broke and ran. The officer told him to stop, but Raymond paid no heed, and started to climb over the board fence that surrounds the yard. As he did so, Hilton pulled his pistol and fired under him, with no intention of hitting the man. As the officer pulled the trigger, Raymond fell back just far enough for the bullet to strike him in the hip.

Raymond then fell to the ground, and Hilton, fearing he had killed the man, rushed up to him, forgetting all about the other prisoner, who made the best of it and escaped. Raymond was carried into the police station and placed on a table, waiting the coming of Dr. Dally, who was summoned to attend him. When the doctor arrived, an examination was made of the man's wound, and it was found that the bullet had pierced the right hip.
No bones were broken, and it was thought that the bullet was lodged in the muscle.

Yesterday evening Mayor Glendinning appeared in the police station and asked for a list of all the men that were in jail on charges of drunkenness and vagrancy. This was furnished him and he signed a pardon releasing all of them. As the crowd of men filed into the office to receive their freedom the mayor told them that he had pardoned them in order that they could enjoy Thanksgiving day and eat turkey dinners. He told them to behave themselves, and they all said they would not be back again. It was not long after they had departed before they were busy preparing to get back in jail again, and a few succeeded in doing so last night. Those who were pardoned were William Brown, Mike Berle, R. Mur-croft, Bob Kelly, John Holt, William Kurkin, Ham Wells, Daniel Cullen, Bill Kison, John R. Rasmussen, Thomas Stelson, Joseph Smith, John Miner and Paddy Berle. When the jailer asked Paddy Berle if he wanted to get out, he replied, in an offended way, "Saw, don't I don't travel with a bang," so he was allowed to stay in jail.

Sheriff Storrs of Provo was in the city last evening and took back with him three men arrested by Sheriff and Rayleigh on the charge of having stolen two cases of boots and shoes from the Oregon Short Line freight depot in Provo. The men were Shepard, Smith and Farrell.

The case against Charles Chapman for pulling the wool over the eyes of an innocent stranger and getting $75 by the deal, was dismissed yesterday. It was found that the complaining witness had left town, and for that reason Chapman was released.

Mr. Budd, of 20 North Third street, this morning reported that 20 ducks and geese had been stolen from his place during the night.

E. S. Masters was arrested last night for being drunk and creating a disturbance at his home.

pardoned by Mayor Glendinning last night, was arrested early this morning for being drunk.

Those Dreadful Sores

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment But Now They are Healed—A Wonderful Work.

"For many years I have been a great sufferer with various veins on one of my limbs. My foot and limb became dreadfully swollen. When I stood up I could feel the blood rushing down the veins of this limb. One day I accidentally hit my foot against some object and a sore broke out which continued to spread and was exceedingly painful. I concluded I needed a blood purifier and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time those dreadful sores which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I kept on faithfully with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time my limb was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful for the wonderful work Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me." Mrs. A. E.

POLICE ETCHINGS.

Four alleged thieves were arrested yesterday and are now in jail awaiting trial. The police are waging an unremitting war upon the crooks and tough characters in the city, and the work they are doing in this direction is certainly creditable. Not least among the active members of the force are the two detectives, Sheets and Raleigh.
They let scarcely a day pass without digging up something that does not lead to the recovery of some of the stolen articles that have been taken from the citizens of Salt Lake and the surrounding country.

Yesterday was no exception, and one of the victims that fell into the hands of the wily detectives was F. B. Murphy. He was placed in duress, with the allegation against him that he had stolen a coat from the Victoria House. The garment in question is said to belong to one H. Waring, who was living in the house.

Sergeant Burdick captured two boys who are alleged to have stolen two chickens from their possession. The boys were taken to the station, and the charge of petit larceny was placed against them. A charge and capture pair owned a dog that was trained for their special use. They could pass by a yard and point out a chicken to the four-footed larcenist, and he would immediately make a charge and capture the bird. Then like a good dog he would bring it to his masters, who would pull off its head and start for more fowls. The boys gave their names as John Tompkins and Alma Hyler.

M. Meir was arrested yesterday by Sheets and Raleigh, and is being held on suspicion of having stolen an overcoat. His case is being investigated by the detectives, and a charge of petit larceny will undoubtedly be placed against him.
